Foreword

Early childhood is the most impressionable period of life. The things learned then are rarely, if ever, forgotten. How important it is, then, that we should give especial attention to every child of the Beginner and Primary departments of the Sunday School, particularly as to the character of songs which they sing.

Realizing our great responsibility we have undertaken the compilation of this song book with the sincere prayer that the songs may touch a responsive chord in the hearts of our dear little friends who will learn them, and that they will prove to be the seed that shall take root and in after years blossom into the fragrant flowers of a Christian life.

We believe every child loves to sing if the proper songs are provided and those herein will be found to be

S-ingable and Simple,
I-nspirational and Instructive,
N-ourishing and Novel
G-ood and Godly.

We desire to acknowledge with thanks the great assistance rendered by Miss M. Florence Brown, Miss Martha McDonald, Miss Laura Ella Cragin, and Miss Blanche A. Zieber without whose suggestions the book would not have been nearly so complete: also to the Century Company, Messrs. Ginn and Company, Thomas Charles Company, Oliver Ditson Company, Rev. C. H. Woolston, Educational Publishing Company and The David C. Cook Company for the use of their copyrights.

"Beginner and Primary Songs" is sent forth with the prayer that it shall adequately meet a long felt need and be the means of leading many little lives to Him who said "Suffer the little children to come unto Me."

ORDERS OF SERVICE

NOTE.—It should, of course, be understood that these Orders of Service are but suggestive and may be changed to meet the needs of the departments in which they are used. We have suggested the use of certain songs, but these, too, may be changed if deemed advisable by the leader in charge. However, let us urge that some definite plan be adhered to. In each service we have suggested a "Rest Service." We believe this to be a necessity in work for the little children. Make this service bright, with some sort of physical exercise, and we are confident the session will prove much more helpful.

We have not made any suggestions for Christmas, Easter, Children's Day or Rally Day because other services are usually used for these occasions.

1 Praise

Quiet Music. Doors Closed.

Teacher—O come let us sing unto the Lord.

Response—Let us sing praises unto our God.

Hymn—"Praise Him." First verse, No. 23.

Teacher—We have been singing praise to some one and have been saying that He is Love. To whom do we refer?

Response—God.

Teacher—What little verse of only three words tells us God loves us?

Response—God is Love.

Teacher—Why do we love Him?

Response—We love Him because He first loved us.

Teacher—How much should we love Him?

Response—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart.

Teacher—How can we show our love to our Father?

Response—If ye love Me, keep My commandments.

Teacher—Whom else does God tell us to love?

Response—Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

Teacher—Did Jesus say we should love any one else?

Response—Yes, He said, "Forget not to show love unto strangers," and "These things I command you that ye shall love one another."

Song—"Loving Praises." No. 76.

Doors open for late comers.

Offering Service.

Teacher—From whence do our blessings come?

Response—Every perfect gift from above cometh from the Father.

Teacher—Does giving make us happy?

Response—It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Singing—"Give, Said the Little Stream." No. 7.

Offering Song—"Our Gifts." No. 97.

Prayer.

Rest Service.

Welcome Service.

New Scholars' Song, No. 78.

Cradle Roll Song, No. 89.

Birthday Song, No. 52.

Lesson for the day.

Closing Song, No. 99.

Closing Prayer, No. 93.

2 Thanksgiving Service

Quiet Music. Doors closed.

Chord to stand.

Supt.—Praise ye the Lord for the Lord is good.

Response—Sing praises unto His Name.

Song—"Grateful Praise." No. 75.

Doors open for late comers.

Praise the Lord all ye nations, praise Him all ye people.

O give thanks unto the Lord for He is good!

Serve the Lord with gladness, come before His presence with singing!

Sing praises unto our God, for the Lord is a great God and a King above all gods.

Prayer Song—"Meet with Us, Gracious Lord." No. 109.

Prayer—(Pupils repeating after superintendent.)

Scripture Reading by Superintendent.

O Lord, how manifold are Thy works; the earth is full of Thy riches. He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills. They give drink to every beast of the field. He watereth the hills, the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Thy works. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle and herb for the service of man, that he may bring forth food out of the earth and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

O Lord, how manifold are Thy works. In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Song—"Thank You, Lord." No. 61.

Offering Service. (See Praise Service.)

Prayer.

Rest Service.

Welcome Service. (New scholars. Song. "How-do-you-do." Change the words to "New Scholar, How-do-you-do?" Change last line to "To our happy little circle we would welcome you." Cradle Roll Song, No. 73. Birthday Song, No. 104.)

Lesson—God's Goodness.

Thanksgiving Song, No. 80.

Closing Song—"Lord Who Lovest Little Children." No. 83.

Prayer.

3 Temperance Service

Theme—Temperance.

Subject—The great benefits to one who never touches strong drink. (Positive side.)

Quiet Music.

Opening Song—"Loving Deeds."

Supt.—How shall we treat those who tempt us?

Response—If sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

How can we know whether a child is good or not?

Even a child is known by his doings.

What does God hate?

Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord.

Can we hide our sins from God?

Be sure your sins will find you out.

Who sees us always?

Thou, God, seest me.

When we have sinned what must we ask God to do?

Wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.

What can wash away sin?

The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanses us from all sin.

Doors open for late comers.

Song—"Be Strong to Do Right."

Prayer.

Response—Hear my prayer O Lord, and keep me in all my ways.

Doors opened for late comers.

Rest Service.

Singing—"A Wise Old Man of Japan." No. 40.

Superintendent's Talk—Temperance Story.

Temperance Song—"I Will Never Touch It." No. 64.

If we serve and love Jesus, what will He do for us?

No good thing will He withhold from them who walk uprightly.

What will He do for us when we die?

He said, "I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am ye may be also."

Song—No. 102.

Welcome Service. (New scholars. Cradle Roll. Birthdays.)

Sentence—No. 58.

Parting Song—No. 96.

Subject—China

Quiet music to call school to order. Doors closed.

Greeting—"How-do-you-do?" No. 29.

Prayer Song—"Father in Heaven, Bless Thy Little Children," No. 87.

Supt.—I was glad when they said unto me.

Response—Let us go into the house of the Lord.

For a day in Thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

Song Sentence—Let the words of my mouth, etc. No. 58.

Prayer—(Pupils repeating after Superintendent.)

Response after Prayer—Hear my prayer, O Lord, and keep me in all my ways!

Doors open for late comers.

Superintendent's Talk—Missionary Story.

Missionary Song—"The World Children."

Offering Service—Superintendent explains where gifts are to be sent.

What kind of giver does God love?

God loveth a cheerful giver.

How shall we give?

Freely ye have received, freely give.

What did Jesus say about giving?

It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Song—"Little Love Gifts." No. 21.

Teacher's Greeting—Good afternoon, children.

School's Greeting (Rising)—Good afternoon, teacher.

After resting all the night,
Little lips, with smiles so bright,
Say "Good afternoon, classmates, dear,
We are glad to see you here."

Little hands their part can do,
They say "Good afternoon," too.
Heads with gentle bows can say,
"How glad we are to meet to-day."

Hymn of Praise. No. 46.

Praise Service.

Teacher—Let us say together some things for which we praise God.

Praise God for wheat, so white and sweet,
with which we make our bread;

Praise God for yellow corn, with which
His waiting world is fed;

Praise God for fish, and flesh, and fowl, He gave to men for food;

Praise God for every creature which He made and called it good;

Praise God for winter's store of ice, praise
God for summer's heat;

Praise God for the fruit tree bearing seed:
"To you it is for meat;"

Praise God for all the bounty by which the world is fed;

Praise God, ye children, all, to whom He gives your daily bread.

Motion Praise Song. No. 22.

Prayer Service.

Teacher—What is prayer?

School—Prayer is asking God from the heart for what we wish, and thanking Him for what He has done for us.

To whom do we pray?

To our Father in heaven.

How should we offer our prayer?

Reverently; meaning what we say; with faith.

Motion Verse.

Two little hands now let us show,
Two hands bring down just so;
Right hand right things must do,
Left hand must help it, too;
Both clasped in prayer each day,
And raised for good alway;
From mischief hold them tight,
Nor let them strike or fight,
But stretch them out in love,
And upward point above;
Now fold them as we pray,

And think of all we say,
With heads all bending low,
And eyes all closed, just so,
Repeating, word for word,
The prayer of our dear Lord.

Sing Lord's Prayer. No. 38.

Let us repeat four things which we believe.

I believe in God above;
I believe in Jesus' love;
I believe His Spirit, too,
Comes to teach me what to do;
I believe that I must be True and good, dear Lord, like Thee.

Recitation—Beatitudes, 23rd or 1st Psalm, or Commandments on alternate Sundays.

Praise.

Teacher—This is the day which the Lord hath made.

Children—We will rejoice and be glad in it.

The Lord blessed the seventh day and hallowed it.

To-day is a Sabbath unto the Lord.

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

We will obey the voice of the Lord our God.

Singing—"Church Bells." No. 45.

Prayer.

Teacher—The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him, to all that call upon Him in truth.

'Tis not far to Jesus,
He is everywhere,
Watching o'er His children
With a tender care.

'Tis not far to Jesus;
No, 'tis very near;
He is all around us,
He is with us here.

If we want to love Him,
(Close eyes and bow the head.)
Let us go and pray;
Then our hearts can find Him,
Now, this very day.

Father, send on us Thy blessing
As we come to Thee in prayer;
Let us feel that Thou art near us,
Keep us in Thy tender care.

Lord, we come to Thee for blessings,
Which Thou only canst bestow;
Give us all new hearts, dear Father,
Grant that we like Thee may grow.

The Lord's Prayer.

Offering.

Leader—What kind of a giver does God love?

School—"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver.

What has God given us?

"God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son."

What is said about giving and receiving?

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

What about the poor?

"Blessed is he that considereth the poor."

Singing. No. 105.

Lesson Prayer.

(Touch finger tips over head.)

As we raise our hands toward the sky above,
We remember God's banner o'er us is love.

(Fold hands in lap and bow the head.)

And we bow our heads again in prayer,
Giving ourselves to His loving care.
May the lesson learned in our hearts sink deep,

May the Lord between us a loving watch keep.

May we show this week in our work and play,
That we've learned of Jesus on this holy day.

We pray Thee to take each little hand
And lead us all to the better land. Amen!

Recitations.

When the weather is wet we must not fret;
When the weather is dry we must not cry;
When the weather is warm we must not storm;
When the weather is cold we must not scold;
But be happy together whatever the weather.

TRUE POLITENESS.

True politeness is to do and say
The kindest thing in the kindest way.

LITTLE KEYS.

Hearts, like doors, open with ease
To very, very little keys,
And these are: "Thank you," and "If you please."

Offering.

Birthday Gifts, with Appropriate Texts and Song, as

Safely through another year
Thou hast brought Thy little one.
Saviour, keep him in Thy fear,
Till his work shall all be done.

Bless him and keep him,
Bless him and keep him,
Lord, bless and keep him,
Till all his work is done.

School—We will come before His presence with thanksgiving; and enter into His courts with praise.

Song. No. 17.

Doors opened for late comers.

Prayer. (To be repeated after the teacher by the children.)

O God, our Heavenly Father, there are so many things that we should thank Thee for to-day. We praise Thee for sparing our lives to worship Thee. We praise Thee for this land in which we live. How we love our Native Land of the free and home of the brave. Grant, O Father, that as we study the lesson of the day and as we have brought to our attention the meaning of the day that we shall pledge ourselves and Thee that we shall grow up to be citizens that shall never be a shame to their country. May we know that any man or woman, boy or girl, that has Jesus Christ in the heart, always is an honor to country or self. Bless us to-day and all days for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Quiet Music. Doors closed.

Superintendent—This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Suggested Prayers

Draw our hearts, O God, our heavenly Father, to Thyself, and may we seek daily to please Thee. Bless us in reading Thy word, and open our hearts to understand it and to love it better than all other books. May it be as the bright Eastern star leading us to Jesus. Assist us in our studies that we may grow in wisdom and grace, and in favor with Thee our dear loving Father. Amen.

O God, Thou art our God, help us early to seek Thee, and become Thy dear children. O satisfy us early in the morning of our lives with Thy mercy, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Teach us to know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent. May we delight in praying to Thee, and so be prepared to sing around Thy throne in glory. We ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

Our Father in heaven, we thank and praise Thee for Thy great mercies to us and to all men. We pray Thee forgive our sins, and make us always willing and able to obey Thy commands, and to follow our Saviour's blessed example. We thank Thee for the Bible. Grant us the help of Thy Holy Spirit, that we may understand and remember our lessons. Help us to see Thy great love in everything and to love Thee as we ought, and our neighbor even as Christ has loved us. Bless all our families, our teachers and our friends. Bless our Church and Sunday School and all Thy people everywhere. May Thy kingdom soon spread over all the earth, and all the glory shall be Thine, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, forever. Amen.

Our Father in heaven, we praise and bless Thee that Thou hast so loved us as to give Thy Son Jesus Christ to suffer and die, that we might be saved from sin and from everlasting death. By His great suffering for us, we pray Thee to make us pure and holy. Make us to follow in all things His blessed example, and keep us Thine till our life's end. Bless Thou our Church and pastor, our parents, teachers and friends. May Thy Gospel be preached everywhere, that all men may soon learn to know and love Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, to whom be glory forever. Amen.

Blessed Lord Jesus, Thou didst lay down Thy life, a sacrifice for our sins; Thou didst rise again, conquering death, that we might not be afraid to die; Thou didst ascend into heaven, and Thou sittest at the right hand of God the Father, to intercede for us, to help and to comfort us. Send, O Lord, Thy Holy Spirit into our hearts, to make us pure, holy, and loving. Help us ever to follow Thee. Bless our parents and friends, our pastors and teachers. Let all nations soon learn to know and love Thee. Keep us this day and all days from sin, and at last receive us to Thyself in heaven, and we will praise Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, forever. Amen.

O God, our Father in heaven, we thank and praise Thee for all Thy great mercies toward us. We pray Thee, forgive our sins, and make us able and willing all our lives to obey Thy commands, and to follow the example of our Saviour. O blessed Jesus, for Thy great love to all men, and especially to us children, make us to love Thee above all things, and to love others as Thou hast loved us. Bless all who take care of and teach us, and all our friends. If any are not kind to us, bless them also, and turn their unkindness into love. Let Thy blessing be upon the Church and Sunday School; help us to remember and to do all that we are here taught. These things, and all that Thou seest we need, we ask for Jesus' sake. Amen.

As we come together now,
We close our eyes, our heads we bow,
We fold our hands, and pray Thee, Lord,
To teach us from Thy holy Word;
To be among us while we stay,
To guard and guide us every day,
And bring us home at last to Thee,
And let these eyes Thy beauty see.
Our Father who art in heaven, etc.

OPENING OR CLOSING EXERCISES, WITH MOTIONS.

Two little hands now let us show,
Two little hands bring down just so;
Right hand right things must do,
Left hand must help it, too,
Both clasped in prayer each day
And raised for good alway;
From mischief fold them tight,
Nor let them strike nor fight,
But stretch them out in love
And upward point above.

Now fold them as we pray
And think of all we say,
With heads all bending low
And eyes all closed just so,
Repeating, word for word,
The prayer of our dear Lord:
Our Father in heaven, etc.

FOR MISSIONS.

Lord, look in pity upon those children who have no Bibles to read, no Sunday Schools to go to, and none to teach them of the glad tidings of salvation. Bless all that is being done to give to them the advantages which we enjoy. And grant Thy blessed Spirit, that by these means all may be led to trust Jesus, to love and serve Him forever. In His name and for His sake we ask it. Amen.

O Lord Jesus, our merciful Redeemer, who didst call children to Thee, and didst
take them into Thine arms and bless them, give Thy blessing to us also, we beseech Thee, this day, and through the whole course of our lives. Grant that we may ever love Thee above all things and with our whole hearts, and that we may earnestly seek after that happiness for which we were created. Bless our dear parents, relations, teachers, pastor, and benefactors; preserve them from all evil, and direct them to all good; and grant that we may meet in Thy eternal kingdom; and to Thee, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, shall be all praise, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord bless us and keep us. The Lord make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us. The Lord lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

Dear Saviour, ere we part,
We lift our hearts to Thee
In gratitude and praise
For blessings full and free.
Go with us to our homes,
Watch o'er and keep us there,
And make us, one and all,
The children of Thy care. Amen.
